

The Virgin, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Written by Brittany Rostron

An emotional comedy that begs the question, can a Wicked Witch and a Virgin Mary be civil, let alone sisters? In a different take on the typical culture clash story, two estranged half sisters; one Catholic and one Wiccan; struggle to fulfill their father's last wish in order to receive their inheritance and in the process challenge every belief either of them have ever known.

Director: Ain Rashida Sykes
Assistant Director: Cristina Lundy

Featuring: Nell Casey, Melissa Lusk, Chris Cariker, David Donahoe and Kyle Haggerty

Industry Reading: Wednesday, May 7th @ 7PM

Then join us for some discussion, networking and your choice of "Wicked" or "Virgin" cocktails!

The Secret Theatre
4402 23rd St
Long Island City, NY 11101

Admission is FREE

Please RSVP to Brittany at BrittanyRostron@hotmail.com

The Secret Theatre is located in the LIC Art Center and can be easily reached via the 7 to 45th/Courthouse Square or the E, V or G to 23rd St/Ely. The theatre is two blocks from the Citibank building, three blocks from P.S. 1 and two blocks from Silvercup Studios.